

FIVE WAYS TO WIN AGAINST RADICALS AND SAVE COUNTRY

Ex-Gov. Cornwell Tells Graduates What Young Men and Women May Be Able to Do.

1. Put Patriotism First.
2. Remember Employees Are Human.
3. Do an Honest Day's Work.
4. Make Your Government Worth Preserving.
5. Defend the United States in Peace as Well as in War.

BURLINGTON, Vt., June 20.—Five ways in which college graduates can help to counteract radicalism were outlined by former Gov. John A. Cornwell of West Virginia in an address at the commencement exercises of the University of Vermont today. He said:

"We are literally befooled by undigested ideas and impractical theories of business and Government," said Mr. Cornwell. "There are real menaces all around us. The efforts of the radical teachers and propagandists are directed more particularly toward the millions of men who belong to the various labor unions. Their hope, their aim, their confident purpose is to bring about the nationalization of all industry, beginning with the railroads, the coal mines and what they term the basic industries."

"When this Government once enters upon that step, there is no turning back. It means that once begun the change will be taken speedily, for the abolition of all private property rights, the socialization of all industry and all property. It means Communism, with the destruction of all individual initiative and a headlong leap into the vortex of anarchy and bedlam, such as has settled over Russia."

"What is the solution of the great questions that are before us? There are several things you young men and women may be able to do."

"First—See that you put your patriotism before your political party."

"Second—If you become an employer, do not forget that the men in your employ are human beings, men with hearts and souls and with ambitions and aspirations, just like yourself."

"Third—If you become an employee, keep ever in mind that while you are entitled to honest pay, to fair and reasonable compensation for what you do, that your employer is likewise entitled to an honest day's work; that he is entitled to your loyalty, your interest and your support in return for the money he pays you. "Fourth—Keep ever in mind that the way to preserve this Government, which your forefathers fought and some of them died to establish, is to make it worth preserving."

"Fifth—As citizens of the United States of America, be ever alert to defend your Government, its institutions and ideals; defend them not only in time of war but in time of peace."

AMHERST, Mass., June 20.—Three thousand sons of Amherst, including Vice President Coolidge, Robert Lansing, former Secretary of State, and Arthur P. Rugg, Chief Justice of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, were back in their old college town today to participate in the opening festivities of their alma mater's centennial celebration. Discussion of Amherst's activities, past, present and future, composed the program of today's meeting, which was presided over by Arthur C. James of New York.

The doctor of the day was Burton H. Baggett, the centennial. Discussing the larger national interests of the American woman of today he urged women to hold aloof from partisan commitments. "If the women divide up with the arm and vote of the parties have been voting," he said, "there will be but one result—the printer's bill for ballots. Even as a minority your power can determine the course of government for good or for evil."

The John Marshall prizes for excellence in prose and verse writing were given to Ruth E. Allen of Brooklyn and Ruth Metzger of New York City, respectively.

Spiritual values are the only reliance of the world in trying to meet present problems, Vice President Calvin Coolidge said in an address at the opening exercises of the celebration.

Evangeline Booth and Secretary Weeks Get Tufts Degrees.

MEDFORD, Mass., June 20.—The honorary degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred upon Secretary of War John W. Weeks at the sixty-fifth commencement exercises of Tufts College today. Evangeline Booth, commander of the Salvation Army, was awarded the degree of Master of Arts.

Other honorary degrees conferred were: Doctor of science, William H. Nichols, President of the General Chemical Company of New York; Master of Arts, Samuel R. Dunn, editor of the Railway Age; and Joseph R. Deane, portrait painter.

Secretary Weeks, Commander Booth, and other recipients of honorary degrees were speakers on the afternoon program. The college awarded 22 degrees in course, of which twenty-seven were for young women of Jackson College, affiliated with Tufts.

New Yorkers Honored at Wesleyan College.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., June 20.—Degrees in course to 120 men and honorary degrees to ten were conferred at the eighty-ninth commencement exercises at Wesleyan University today. Among the awards of honorary degrees were: Doctor of Laws, Everett J. Lake, Governor of Connecticut; Albert H. Merwin, Connecticut Commissioner of Education; President Remsen B. Ogilby of Trinity College; Clinton De Witt Burdick of Brooklyn University; Treasurer William Ingraham, Haven of New York.

Doctor of Humane Letters—Henry Osborn Taylor of New York City. Of the degrees in course 114 were those of bachelor of arts and six master of arts. Herbert E. Arnold of Brooklyn received the highest honors.

William Barclay Parsons a Triality Doctor of Science.

HARTFORD, Conn., June 20.—Commencement Day at Trinity College saw a gathering in Alumni Hall much larger than that in many years. It was the first commencement under President Remsen B. Ogilby. Degrees in course were conferred upon thirty-two men. Among the honorary degrees conferred were: Master of Science, Mervyn Washington Alexander of the General Electric Company; Doctor of Literature, Prof. Frank G. Moore of Columbia University; Doctor of Science, Col. William Barclay Parsons, Doctor of Laws, Vittorio Romaldi Ricci, Ambassador from Italy to the United States.

SENTIMENT SAVES SEATON.

Victim and Old Friend Refuse to Prosecute Lawyer.

A friendship and partnership of fifteen years with the man in whose name he is alleged to have forged checks for $6,000 probably will save from prosecution Robert W. Seaton, a lawyer, of 101 Park Place, Brooklyn. This became apparent today in Adams Street Police Court when Samuel E. Whitehouse, Seaton's former partner, appeared before Magistrate Walsh and stated that to testify against Seaton "would hurt his conscience." He added that the $6,000 had been made good. William A. Fischer, Secretary of the People's Trust Company, on which the checks were drawn, also told the court he had no desire to prosecute.

OLD CANNON BLOWS UP.

Gun That Had Not Been Fired for 43 Years Injures Two Boys.

RIVERHEAD, L. I., June 20.—Two boys were injured when a rusting cannon, about a foot long, which had not been fired for forty-three years, exploded today. Dewitt Benjamin, son of Dr. and Mrs. P. Everett Benjamin, lost the thumb and first finger of his right hand. His forehead and right arm were badly cut. Fortuna Backus, a chum, was hit in the right arm by a piece of the cannon. Powder to fire the gun was obtained from fire crackers. When it would not fire, Benjamin began to tinkwith the inside of the barrel with a metal instrument, which apparently struck a spark.

MAXIM'S IN BANKRUPTCY.

Gay Restaurant Ceased to Sparkle When Champagne Dried.

An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed in the Federal Court today against the Maxim Hotel and Restaurant Company, No. 105-113 West 43rd Street. The creditors of record say the liabilities of the company amount to $16,000 and the assets to $8,000. The petitioners are: Kirschbaum Bros., clothing, $1,455; Pack & Tilford, 417, and J. Meyer Stationery and Printing Company, $27.

The restaurant, which had a hard time after prohibition, came in, struggled along until the first of the month, when it was closed. In its day the resort was one of the most prosperous in the city and at night one of the gayest, where seats were at a premium.

Examination of Prisoner in "Ark" Shooting Postponed.

The examination of John A. O'Grady, charged with the murder of John E. England in a shooting affray on a boat house known as "The Ark" at the foot of Seaview Avenue, Jersey City, last night, was postponed until Friday before Acting Justice Makley this morning. Sixteen men held as witnesses were bailed.

We have always felt that in order to succeed we must place service to customers ahead of profit.

To accomplish this we have always maintained a special department devoted to keeping our service up to the highest standard.

Recently this special department went to great expense to determine just what the highest type of service consisted of. An intensive investigation and analysis revealed that it was a composite of Justice, Co-operation, Economy and Energy.

Immediately an educational plan was adopted whereby each individual employee is being trained in the application of each of these qualities.

The results are every day evident. The highest type of Service is assured each customer, just as are the famed McCreery Quality and McCreery Values.
